THE UTAH SENATOR

Senate Committee, Making Investigation of Charges, Will Meet in January.

SMOOT'S REPLY WILL BE READY.

Before Going to Salt Lake He Said He Would Deny Some of the Charges.

The Present Indications Are That the Question Will Be Before the Committee For Some Time to Come.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Senator Burrows, who is chairman of the senate committee on privileges and elections, which is conducting the investigation of the charges against Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, said Tuesday that the committee would probably meet on Saturday, January 9, for the continuation of the inquiry. While Senator Burrows has received no notification from Senator Smoot he thinks it probable that the reply of the latter to the charges against him will be ready by the time mentioned. Senator Burrows would make no forecast of the proceedings of the committee. All depended, he said, upon the nature of the response. Before going to Salt Lake City Mr. Smoot said that he probably would deny some of the charges and admit others, but nothing regarding his course has been heard since the adjournment of congress for the holidays.

If Mr. Smoot's denial is such as to challenge the authenticity of the information upon which the accusations are based, it is the opinion of some of the members of the committee that the authors of the charges will be given an opportunity to prove them, and in that event there probably would be quite a general investigation to the present day practices of the Mormon church, with reference both to marriage and politics. The committee has, however, reached no conclusion looking to such a course, and Chairman Burrows declined to express any opinion as to its probability. If Senator Smoot should admit the charges as a whole, which is not considered probable, there would then be nothing left for the committee but to consider the legal aspect of the case and decide whether the facts alleged, even if true, disqualify a man for a seat in the senate.

The present indications are that the question will be before the committee for some time.

IS STILL CHAMPION

Merciful Referee Probably Saved Eddie Hanlon From Being Killed by "Young Corbett."

CONTEST STOPPED IN 16TH ROUND

No Man Ever Received Such Terrific Punishment in a San Francisco Ring as Did Hanlon.

The Defeated Lad Was Carried to His Corner and Commenced to Vomit Blood—Things Looked Serious For a Short Time.

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—A merciful referee probably saved Eddie Hanlon from being killed by "Young Corbett" Tuesday night when he stopped their contest in the middle of the 16th round. For two rounds previous Referee Graney had begged Hanlon's seconds to take their man out of the ring, but they kept the game youngster at it and finally Graney, fearing that a fatality might result, ordered the fight stopped. No man ever received such terrific punishment in a San Francisco ring and probably "Young Corbett" is the only man in the country who could administer such a beating to Hanlon. When the San Francisco boy was carried to his corner still conscious but unable to walk, his seconds worked vigorously to revive him. The terribly beaten lad, however, commenced to vomit blood and things looked very serious for him for a short time. He was finally revived and was carried from the ring by one of his seconds.

Before he left "Young Corbett" paid a high tribute to his skill and gameness and saluted his brother prize fighter with an affectionate kiss. It must be said for Corbett that he was as merciful, under the circumstances, as he could be. During the 14th and 15th rounds he, too, was anxious to have the fight stopped in order to save Hanlon needless punishment.

The fight demonstrated that Corbett is every man's superior at his weight. At no time during the contest was he in any apparent danger and when it ended there was not a mark upon him. Hanlon's most peculiar and very effective defense was all that saved him from a knock-out early in the game. Even when he became tired and could not protect himself Corbett could not land a knock-out blow. In the 13th round and 14th round Corbett began to show what he could do. The men were allowed to fight in the clinches and Corbett, leaning his head against Hanlon's shoulder and with his arms free, would punch him in the stomach with his right and swing fierce short lefts on his jaw. That was the beginning of the end.

In the 15th round Corbett hacked Hanlon into a corner and when the San Francisco boy swung feebly Corbett swung two lightning lefts and Hanlon went down. He took the count of eight, but struggled to his feet and again received the terrific punishment that Corbett was dealing out to him. It was then that Graney wanted the fight stopped.

In the seventh round things looked a bit bright for the Californian. He scored a clean knock-down when he landed a right swing on the point of Corbett's jaw. The Denver lad was up in an instant, however, and was apparently not injured by the blow. In the 12th round Hanlon made his last stand. All through he did the forcing and leading. Corbett was swinging wild when Eddie landed a terrific right on the stomach. It evidently hurt the champion, but he was too husy to think about it and went right on with the game.

The 16th round had lasted but a minute and 40 seconds when Referee Graney stopped the fight. Hanlon, when seen in his dressing room, was still in great distress and refused to talk much. He did say, however, that Corbett "can beat any of them. Although defeated the San Francisco boy was not disgraced and was even more loudly cheered than the champion when he left the ring. The attendance was enormous for a featherweight fight. The receipts were between $16,000 and $20,000. Fifty per cent. of the receipts were divided between the fighters, the winner taking 75 per cent. of this amount and the loser 25 per cent.

In addition Corbett was given five per cent. of the gross receipts in view of his drawing powers. The fight will go into ring history as the fastest and fiercest ever seen here.

Gov. Jelks Tuesday offered a reward of $800 for the arrest and conviction of the persons who participated in the lynching in addition to the reward of $1,000 offered by the citizens of Pineapple.

PRONOUNCED AN IDLE STORY.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 30.—A report circulated in Lincoln says that cases of leprosy had been discovered in the Russian colony of the city is declared by authorities to be without foundation. Health Officer Rhode said that the investigation made by the city physician and himself during the day totally disproved the report. PANAMA QUESTION

The President Designated Secretary Root to Conduct Negotiations With Gen. Reyes.

SECRETARY OF STATE HAY IS ILL.

The Reply of This Government to the Note of Colombia is Not Yet Ready.

Just Now It Is Stated Authoritatively That There is Nothing in the Situation to Arouse Serious Concern.

Washington, Dec. 30.—At a meeting of the cabinet, called by the president for 4 o'clock, the Panama situation was the principal subject under consideration. All members of the cabinet except Secretary Hay, who is ill, Secretary Shaw and Attorney General Knox, who are out of the city, were present. The meeting was one of the longest held for several weeks, the session consuming quite two hours. At the conclusion of the meeting the members were not communicative, but it was learned that in addition to a discussion of matters relating to Panama several departmental matters of minor importance were considered.

Secretary Root was delayed nearly half an hour in his arrival at the meeting, having been in conference with Gen. Reyes, the special representative of Colombia. This circumstance caused it to transpire that during the illness of Secretary Hay Secretary Root has been designated by the president to conduct the negotiations of this government with Gen. Reyes. Secretary Root laid before the president the details of his interview with the Colombian minister. Careful consideration was given to the Colombian note filed with the state department by Gen. Reyes, but it can be said that no answer yet has been made to it. The note was submitted by the Colombian minister in Spanish. Some delay was encountered in the translation of the document, but finally the translation was laid before the president and Secretary Root for consideration.

Secretary Root informed Gen. Reyes Tuesday afternoon that the reply of this government was not ready, but that it would be given him as soon as possible. Secretary Root will give the response to Gen. Reyes when a decision as to its precise nature special have been reached.

No intimation of the contents of Gen. Reyes' note or of the reply of this government is given from any authoritative source. It is known, however, that the administration regards the ratification of the treaty with the republic of Panama as the first step to be taken in the entire pending matter. What this government may do subsequently will be determined at least in part by the circumstances then surrounding the case. Just now it is said authoritatively there is nothing in the situation to arouse serious concern.

Gen. Reyes has not indicated to Secretary Root what his intentions are regarding his future movements. It is presumed he will remain in Washington at least until the reply of the United States to his note shall have been presented, but so far as can be ascertained nothing definite is known as to his intentions.

The Philadelphia Record thinks it is not strange the White House is infested with cranks, considering the kind of people the President is in the habit of inviting to lunch.

Boston is rather slow to recognize the merits of the colored people, considering the small vote given one of their candidates at the recent election when he ran 15,000 behind the ticket.

Some one signing his name, "Scrupulous Conscience," has sent $1,320 to railway agents, city officials and others at St. Louis the past week. What an inflow into city, county and State treasuries there would be if this thing could be properly developed.

The Frankfort Chair Company that was recently found to be $53,000 behind in its payment of the State for the lease of convict labor has squared its account, so far as the $53,000 is concerned, but the State will now require it to pay interest on the account for the time it was overdue. It's fortunate for State Auditor Coulter the affair has been so satisfactorily adjusted.

THE BEE HIVE

Sale Starts Friday, January 1st, 1904.

Our First Linen Sale---$5,000 Worth of Linens For $3,000.

We have never had a linen sale before because of the lack of room. We have never pushed our linen business because of the lack of room, but since we have added our new addition to our store we have now not only plenty of room, but lots of light. We have made arrangements with the largest and best linen house in the country to handle their linen exclusively, and when the people are acquainted and have used this line we should do 90 per cent. of the linen business of Maysville. IN ORDER TO INTRODUCE THIS LINE OF LINENS we will have a two weeks sale beginning FRIDAY, JANUARY 1st. Every yard, every napkin, every piece of linen in this sale is absolutely guaranteed to be the best piece ever sold in Maysville for the money. We also will close out all the old pieces of table linen and odd napkins, some of which are soiled, but the prices we will sell them for will pay for a dozen washings.

BLEACHED TABLE LINEN—An opportunity to buy good linens at little prices. We will not try to paint with flowery words the designs, the styles, the width, etc., but will kindly ask you to call and judge for yourself if we have not gathered for your selection the finest collection and best assortment of linens at a less price than you have ever seen before. AT TEN O'CLOCK FRIDAY We will place on sale 2,600 sample pieces of table linen, generally sold at 10, 15, 25, 35 and 40c, our prices 5, 10 and 15c. To give everybody a chance these pieces will not go on sale until 10 o'clock. Don't expect to get any if you come at 12.

Report Expected Soon From Agent Sent Here to Investigate the Charges.

It is expected that a report will shortly be made by the agent of the Postoffice Department sent to this county to investigate charges of collusion between the Civil Service Examiner and applicants for examination to the position of rural free delivery carriers.

Under the examination held all the appointees for carrier positions were Democrats. This led certain Republicans to complain to the department, which revoked the commission pending further examination.

The Civil Service Commission declares that the reason the appointees received their commissions was because they obtained the highest averages, and that the examination was conducted squarely.

The late Andrew M. January, one of the best known and most reliable of the former residents of Maysville, told that he remembered a winter many years ago during which he walked one day from his residence to his place of business without an overcoat, the river being free of ice, and the next day he walked across the Ohio to Aberdeen on the ice, so sudden a change in the temperature had taken place and so extreme was the cold.

Hon. John B. Chenault, State Insurance Commissioner, at present a resident of Maysville, and his brother-in-law, Nelson Gay, of Clark, have purchased a well-stocked and improved farm in Virginia containing 2,100 acres, for $30,000. Mr. Chenault will remove to Virginia next month.

"The Rebellion of the Toys" was charmingly given by the younger members of the Sunday school, who had been well trained by Miss Ella Wallace. Little Miss De-wees Poyntz, Master Kelly Tanbee and Master Thomas Wallace were the stars of the evening. The choir assisted with some fine music. The tree was beautiful, and the evening proved a most enjoyable one for all present.

SANTA CLAUS' DREAM OF DAN COHEN:

Old Santa Clause pondered and scratched his head; "What good thing can I do for Maysville?" he said. "The people there are good and they're true; They deserve something fine and something new." So he thought and planned with emotion deep, Till at last, so weary, he fell asleep. The wind howled and whistled and fast fell the snow; The people of Maysville appeared in a row, Marching two by two, rich and poor, young and old, With feet bare and freezing and bleeding with cold. To the sole of a foot there was never a shoe; They begged Santa Claus' pity for even a few. His eyes filled with tears, he awoke with a start, And wondered what angel had entered his heart.

He sprang to his feet, danced and shouted with glee "I'll send Dan Cohen to Maysville," quoth he. "A gift better far than a Christmas tree— A blessing perpetual he surely will be; Oh, better, much better, than gay Christmas tree! He shall furnish them shoes so good and so cheap That careworn mothers will cease to weep Over barefooted girls and barefooted boys. He shall offer them something far better than toys— Shoes for the young and shoes for the old, For shy little girls and big brothers bold, For little and big and all the 'betweens,' By the hand of his Manager, W. H. MEANS."
